

H. C. FRICK TO PRESENT CHIMES.

Magnificent Set to Be Donated to New Trinity Lutheran Church.

TO BE OF THE VERY BEST

Coke King Replies Promptly to Request of Pastor Ellis B. Burgess. Will Probably Cost $10,000—Fourteenth Anniversary.

This morning's mail brought an important letter to Rev. Ellis B. Burgess which will bring happiness to the congregation of Trinity Lutheran Church tomorrow morning when he reads it from his pulpit. It is a letter from Henry Clay Frick in which he promises to purchase for the church the very best set of chimes to be placed in the belfry of the new structure which the congregation will erect at the corner of Carnegie avenue and Fairview avenue. The letter is as follows:

Frickburg, May 28, 1909.
Rev. Ellis Burgess,
Pastor Trinity Lutheran Church,
Connellsville, Penna.

Dear Sir:
Mr. H. C. Frick directs me to state in reply to your communication of the 26th that he will give to your church when it is erected such chimes as are decided upon by Messrs. L. F. Rutt, William C. Nelson and J. B. Hays, as being the best.

Very truly yours,
H. C. Frick.
Rev. Burgess sometime ago conceived the idea of asking Mr. Frick for a donation for the chimes and after consulting Mr. Rutt who is a close personal friend of the coke king, secured several recommendations from influential members of the congregation before writing Mr. Frick. The result was a prompt and generous reply, and Trinity Church is now assured of having a magnificent set of chimes.

No price has been set upon the chimes but it is likely that the committee will purchase a set ranging in price from $7,000 to $10,000. So far as the committee knows this will be the only set of chimes in the Western part of the State outside of Pittsburgh. Altoona has a pair but not chimes. The congregation is preparing to start work upon its new structure and as soon as all the plans and preparations are completed active work will be started and it will be pushed to completion.

Although Mr. Rutt is not a member of Trinity Lutheran Church he was appealed to by the pastor to aid them in their request to Mr. Frick by reason of the fact that he is a close personal friend, and there is much gratification felt that Mr. Frick has responded to the town so handsomely upon two occasions recently. His contribution toward a large donation to the temple on South Pittsburgh street.

Rev. Burgess will celebrate his fourteenth anniversary as pastor of Trinity church tomorrow. It will be an interesting occasion as he will discuss the affairs pertaining to the church during his pastorate and acquaint his congregation with the happenings during that period. An especially large gathering of not only the congregation but friends of the pastor is expected to attend the services.

SCOTSDALE ELKS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Held a Social Session Which is Largely Attended and Delightful Time Had.

SCOTSDALE, May 28.—The seventh anniversary of Scotsdale Lodge No. 777, B. P. O. Elks was celebrated last night in the Elks Home by the order, and a most delightful time was had by all attending. Besides the local members there were many visiting brethren who joined in the pleasures of the evening. District Deputy John F. Ely of Jeannette, William Carroll and E. W. Clark of the same place and G. W. McKee of town delivered addresses. They were short, snappy, happy affairs and pleased greatly.

One of the pleasant events of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. J. O'Shea, Exalted Ruler of Scotsdale Lodge, with a magnificent gold watch chain. The presentation was made by District Deputy Ely in a pleasing manner. The recipient was greatly surprised but thanked the donors in a most sincere and fitting manner. A number of Connellsville Elks were present but were compelled to leave on the 11:30 o'clock car in order to reach home.

The Weather.
Fair and warmer tonight and Sunday, is the noon weather bulletin.

H. F. Barkley Goes Over Bank Near Mt. Pleasant.
MT. PLEASANT, May 28.—H. F. Barkley, the Connellsville druggist, met with an accident while automobiling near town. In some manner he lost control over his machine and it went over a small embankment. One of the wheels were smashed, while the owner was uninjured.

It took almost all night to repair the automobile but it was finally accomplished and he ran the machine to Connellsville.

BURFORD IS SUSTAINED BY THE SUPREME COURT

It Holds He Was Not a Trespasser on the Fayette Coke Company.

UNIONTOWN, May 28.—The papers from the Supreme Court have been filed with the Prothonotary in which the decision of the Superior Court in the suit of the Commonwealth against Burford is affirmed. This brings to a conclusion a hard fought case to determine the rights of the public on private roads of coke company's plants.

In July, 1905, Burford was arrested on information of the Fayette Coke Company, charged with trespass for going on the company's land to deliver orders. Burford being the proprietor of a store. Taken before Justice of the Peace Jeffries, Burford was fined $4 and costs. He appealed to the county courts and was discharged, although, on points of law, Burford was held technically guilty of trespass. The matter was appealed to the Superior Court, which decided his offense was not trespassing.

In passing on the case the Superior Court said, among other things, that "these private and customary thoroughfares and ways of entrance and the right to use them includes not only the right of the lessee, but also members of his family and others, who, with the permission of the tenant, is visiting the house."

The court held Burford not to be a trespasser. He was delivering provisions, necessities of life, in fact, and used the customary entrance and thoroughfares. The Supreme Court passed on the case without comment, simply affirming the finding of the Superior Court.

WATCHMAN'S HOUSE ENTERED BY ROBBERS

Take Two Pistols and Razors and Then Continue in Three Other Houses.

BROWNSVILLE, May 28.—Burglars were active in South Brownsville last night and although they entered four houses they did not secure very much booty. At the home of H. Lindsey, the night watchman, two revolvers and a watch were taken. The night watchman was patrolling another section of the town.

At the home of H. C. Chalfant $10 in cash was secured, but nothing else was disturbed. At the home of H. A. Wilkins a thorough search of the house was made, and only some clothing taken. The robbers were evidently in search of cash. Two windows in the H. B. Bennett property were ransacked, but the burglars were evidently scared off before they entered the house. Many robberies have occurred here lately and it is thought that an organized gang is operating.

RAILROAD TO TAKE ENTIRE OUTPUT

Connellsville Company To Develop Sewickley Coal Vein on Ewing Property Near Uniontown.

The work of opening the new coal mine north of Beeson works on the old Ewing property, near Uniontown, is well under way, and the work of erecting the tipples from which to load the product is in progress.

The company owning and operating the mine is from Connellsville, James Buttermore and August Sticksel, Jr., being the principal factors. The vein worked is the Sewickley vein which lies above the blue foot vein.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad will take the full output of the mine as that company finds Sewickley coal of the very best quality for use on engines. The mining company will not have to construct a siding as the Stewart Iron Company has given the privilege of using the siding leading into Beeson works. The mine will be ready for business as soon as the tipples can be completed.

Broke His Arm.
Burke McCormick broke his arm this morning and will have to lay off for a time until it mends. Burke was cranking an automobile when the crank slipped.

BURGLARS BUSY NEAR SCOTSDALE.

They Get Purse Containing $350 In Home of W. F. Coughenour.

TWO SUSPECTS ARE ARRESTED

Store of L. W. Hite at West Overton Is Entered While Depredations Also Occur in Mt. Pleasant—Three Boys Confess Piffing.

SCOTSDALE, May 28.—Burglars were busy during the night in the vicinity of Scottdale and Mt. Pleasant. The richest haul was made at the home of W. F. Coughenour near Woodlands, which was robbed during the absence of the family. The burglars secured a purse containing $350, some valuable papers and a new revolver. Upon his return and discovery of the robbery, Mr. Coughenour organized a posse which scoured the country and arrested, near the Mt. School House, Dan Buckley of New York State and John Verrick of Northumberland county. The men were taken to Mt. Pleasant and Officer John F. Nugent brought them to Scottdale where they were arraigned before Justice of the Peace J. C. Brownfield. They are now in the Scottdale lockup awaiting a hearing this afternoon. It is believed the men are among those discharged by the John Robinson show in Connellsville earlier in the week.

The store of L. W. Hite at West Overton was entered during the night, the burglars securing $40 in money, an unopened caddy of tobacco and a box of soap. The store of C. G. Page in the East End of Mt. Pleasant was entered during the night and $10 in cash was taken, besides large quantities of cigars, cigarettes and chewing gum. The whole totaling upwards of $50. Chief of Police Perry Kellar was notified early this morning and after investigating in company with Officer Edward Stevens and Constable James Ellis arrested James Arnold, James Gibbs, colored, and Earl Pika, white, three well known boys of Mt. Pleasant.

After their arrest the three boys confessed to robbing the store and had concealed the goods in a field near Aeneas works and in two barber shops of town. They were given a hearing and entered a plea of guilty. The trio will be taken to Greensburg Jail this afternoon.

YOUGH HOUSE SOLD BY TRUSTEE TODAY

E. T. Norton, Acting for Unknown Parties, Bids It For $50,000.

The Yough House was sold at a trustee's sale this afternoon to E. T. Norton, Cashier of the First National Bank, for $50,000. The sale was $77,000 for the real estate and $3,000 for the personal property. Immediately following the sale Mr. Norton stated that he was in possession of several parcels, none of whom was made public. There is a mortgage of $50,000 on the property. The sale was made by James J. Cullity, trustee in the estate of James McGloin, bankrupt. George C. Allen of Uniontown was the auctioneer and F. D. Munson clerk. There was practically no opposition to the bid of Mr. Norton.

TO OPERATE OLD MORRELL.

J. A. Guller is Opening Up The Sewickley Vein There.

J. A. Guller of Connellsville, who some time since purchased the old Morrell property, near Wheeler in Dunbar township from the Cambria Iron Company, has begun the opening of the Sewickley coal on the hill next the railroad.

The old siding formerly used by the Morrell works before the exhaustion of the blue foot coal under the property, caused the abandonment of the works. It is still down and will be utilized by Mr. Guller. The B. & O. company will take the product of his mine.

UNIONTOWN MAN DIES VERY SUDDENLY

George B. Rutter Awakens His Daughter Telling Her He Is Dying and Passes Away in 15 Minutes.

UNIONTOWN, May 28.—Retiring apparently in good health at 10:15 last night George B. Rutter, aged 71, of Oakland avenue and Vine streets, one of the most widely known men in Fayette county, awoke his daughter, Emma, about an hour afterward with cries that he was dying, and passed away 15 minutes later. He had recently suffered from heart trouble, but seemed to be improving rapidly the past week. He was in the central part of town Thursday and informed his friends that he felt better than he had for some time. His daughters inquired about his health before he retired last night and he answered that he was feeling good. About 11 o'clock Miss Emma heard cries from her father's room and rushed to his bedside. He complained of a severe pain in the left side and after telling the daughter that he was dying, lapsed into unconsciousness and died in a short time.

Mr. Rutter was born in Uniontown and had lived there all his life. He was the son of the late George W. and Mary Beeson Rutter. In early life he learned the carpenter trade, which he followed for many years. He enlisted in the Union army in 1861 and saw active service in the Civil War. He held the position of Keeper of Records and Seals in the Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 119.

Mr. Rutter is survived by two daughters, Emma and Katie, at home, and one son, Charles M., of Iowa street.

VISITORS MADE TROUBLE IN HOME.

Both Guests of Mrs. Nelson Are Arrested and Fined by Burgess.

THEY TOLD CONFLICTING TALES

Johnson Said He Was Told To Put Garrett Out But the Latter Denied It All and Called Johnson the Aggressor.

The home of Mrs. Martha Nelson of the colored settlement in Grape alley was the scene of a disturbance last night between Marshall Johnson of town and Edward Garrett of South Connellsville. Stories of the trouble varied when told to Burgess Evans, a police court this morning.

Johnson was given the first finding. He said he had dropped in at the Nelson home to make a social call and upon his arrival found Garrett creating a disturbance. Mrs. Nelson invited him to show Garrett the door, which he did.

"Next thing I knew," explained Johnson, "was that man coming back with two policemen and saying I had pointed a gun on him. There wasn't no gun closer than a hardware store."

Garrett told a different tale. He said he went to see Mrs. Nelson on a matter of business. There was another man there and the three engaged in conversation, very friendly, of course.

"I was just conversing about people of acquaintance when this man Johnson came in. He asked if I was talking about him. I said I wasn't, but he didn't seem satisfied and started trouble. I went out to save trouble and got the police to arrest the fellow."

Burgess Evans fined both men $5 each and told them the next time they visited Mrs. Nelson to behave themselves. Johnson paid but Garrett didn't have the change and went back to the cells for 72 hours.

Philip Tierney, an occasional visitor at the bustle, admitted being drunk and took his 15 hour sentence as a matter of course.

Another Coal Land Deal.

WASHINGTON, Pa., May 28.—By deed filed for record at the office of the Washington County Recorder, John H. Donnar and wife, of Washington, transfer to Isaac W. Semans a 10-150 interest in 55 tracts of coal land in East and West Finley townships, Washington county, and Morris and Allegheny townships, Greene county. The consideration was $153,000, which does not include back taxes and judgments.

CAUGHT JUST AS HE NEARS HOME.

Michael Drum, Deserter, Traveled Half Across Continent and Is Arrested.

WANTED TO SEE HIS FAMILY

Wife and Children Live in Cumberland But Too Much Liquor Results in His Apprehension and Subsequent Confession at This Place.

Michael Drum traveled half across the continent to see his wife and children at Cumberland only to be arrested here on a charge of desertion from the army. After eluding the officers of the law and passing through many States, it was the story of late that Drum should fall in the object of his flight just as it was about to be realized. Had he kept sober and gone through Connellsville in a hurry to day he might have greeted the wife and three children he left a year ago. Instead he is in the borough lockup and will be returned to officials of the army in a few days. Chief of Police Rottler will communicate with the War Department today and get instructions as to the course of action to be taken.

"I wouldn't have cared if I had reached home," said Drum when seen by The Courier reporter this morning. "I intended to give myself up after I had reached Cumberland."

Drum left home a year ago and traveled through the Middle West. He worked at various places, principally as a miner in the Indiana coal fields. In January he enlisted in the army at St. Louis and was put in a company of the Signal Corps under Captain Clifton at Fort Omaha, Neb.

On May 16, after drawing three months back pay, he went down town and accumulated a jag of the 10 he had when he started out, but $20 remained when he became partially sober. Then the idea of quitting the army entered his head and he left town. He wandered from place to place, working his way eastward as rapidly as possible. His last stop before reaching here was at Buffalo.

Last night Drum reached town and was arrested as a suspicious character. He was intoxicated and confessed having left the army.

This morning in police court he gave the name of George Lewis on being questioned by Burgess Evans broke down and confessed. He was told, Drum has a wife at Cumberland. She has three children one by him and two by a former husband. He will not see her this time as he is out to receive a harsh sentence for deserting. There is a chance, however, that his captain may be lenient and permit him to escape with a light sentence.

CENTRAL OF GEORGIA GETS WHITE FIREMEN

Believed Road Will Abandon Employment of Negroes in State of Georgia.

United Press Telegram
ATLANTA, Ga., May 19.—A small train left here on the Central of Georgia today with a white strikebreaker as fireman for the first time since the strike. This move on the part of the railroad is believed to be the first step towards the abandonment by the railroad of further attempts to use negro firemen on its lines in this State. It was feared more rioting will follow the attempt to run mail trains with negro firemen and the Government insisted that the road make an effort to move the mails without the use of the negro fireman.

Without Extra Coach on No. 3 Local People Would Have Hard Time.

The H. & O. train from Fairmont to Pittsburgh, due here at 10:10 in the morning carries a day coach, parlor car and diner. Travel has become so heavy recently that there is seldom any spare seats in the train when it arrives at Connellsville. The extra coach which is put on here for McKeesport passengers is found very convenient for Connellsville travel. In fact, there are days when, without it, the Connellsville people would have to ride on the roof.

HUNT SAYS IT ISN'T ALL LUCK

Fairmont Is Playing Good Ball Just Now, He Affirms—Two Games Monday.

It was announced this morning that the morning game here with Uniontown on Monday will be called at 10:30. The afternoon game in the County Seat will be called at 3 o'clock. The regular admission is to be charged.

At noon today Manager Hunt of Fairmont announced that King will pitch for his team this afternoon and will probably be opposed by Johnny Yocet. Manager Sweeney expects to play both Hagun and Gilligan in today's contest.

Manager Hunt declares that luck is the one big element in Fairmont's success this year. "We are getting the best of breaks," he said. "But it isn't all luck by any means. We are fielding as well as any team in the league and have been hitting good, too."

When the cut is made on June 1 Manager Hunt will release one man. His team will then be under the salary limit. The Cokers will have no trouble making the limit.

SPELLING BEE DOWN AT TYRONE CHURCH

Miss Elizabeth Ruffcorn Is The Best of Fifty Contestants—J. M. Murtland Pronounced.

There was an old fashioned spelling bee at the Tyrone Church in Low or Tyrone township last night and a huge crowd gathered to witness the contest, between the best spellers in the vicinity. There were 50 participants in the spelling bee and all were confident as they faced Deputy Revenue Collector J. M. Murtland of Dawson, who pronounced each word.

After spelling for a long time Miss Elizabeth Ruffcorn and George Ruffcorn were the last ones to remain standing on each side. Miss Ruffcorn won out on the final word. Miss Amy Porter of Scottdale was the captain of the losing side. Osgood's speller was used.

ASSEMBLE AT CEMETERY

The announcement made yesterday that the Grand Army veterans would meet on the library grounds on Sunday and march to Hill Grove Cemetery seems to have been a misunderstanding. Colonel J. E. Feldstein's

Will, of course, be closed all day Monday.

Please do not give us credit for it.

Of all the shameful and disgusting things in the world, the attempt to make patriotism a help-maid to business, is the most shameful and most disgusting.

This is therefore to be simply taken as an announcement of the fact that we shall be closed all day on Monday.

DOWAGER QUEEN OF ITALY, WHO IS BELIEVED TO HAVE LOCKJAW.

Alarm is felt at all the courts of Europe over the condition of Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy. She has been confined to her bed for nearly two months suffering from a swelling of the neck and jaw, which her physicians have found difficult to diagnose. Specialists who were called in recently believed it a rare case of lockjaw caused by a severe cold contracted while on a motor trip. She suffers excruciating pain and gets no relief except from heavy doses of morphine. Since tetanus usually follows a wound of some kind, the medical experts defer as to the nature of the royal patient's malady. Queen Margherita is 68 years of age.

THE GRATUITOUS INSINUATIONS OF A CALLED CONTEMPORARY.

The News wonders whether it has been "misinformed" concerning the outing given the Conneltsville school children at Shady Grove by The Courier. It may.

Last year the park management paid the fares of the school pupils to the resort and paid for the advertising in both papers. Did the park management gratuitously plan to pay the fares again this year and get advertising in one of the papers free, or did the contemporary, in addition to giving the amusement resort advertising free, agree to pay the fares also? If the contemporary did we congratulate it upon its liberality.

The insinuations of The News are gratuitous and are borne of an animus which is neither creditable to its editor nor complimentary to the intelligence of the community. It is sufficient to say that the only thing "free" about the Shady Grove transaction was the free outing which was freely given to the Conneltsville school children, the FULL COST OF WHICH WILL BE BORNE, SOLELY BY THE COURIER, and by no other person or persons.

As to the terms of our contract with the Shady Grove Park Company, we take it that the public is not interested. It is evident, however, that The News is hunting information, and hunting it as strenuously as Roosevelt is hunting African game.

MR. FRICK'S MOST ACCEPTABLE PRESENT.

The promise of Henry Clay Frick to present the new Trinity Lutheran Church with a set of chimes will be grateful news, not only to the Lutheran congregation, but likewise to the Conneltsville people in general.

We are inclined to think that there should be a thorough ordinance or a State law forbidding any other kind of church bells. It is certain that some church bells are very trying to sick people. Their brazen, discordant and jarring clang is a torture to the nervous system, and in some cases physicians say it is seriously harmful to their patients.

The church bell was originally designed for the purpose of calling the people together for worship. In the early days, when clocks and watches were few, the bells were necessary; but in these modern times, when almost every house has one or more clocks, there is no longer any use for the bells as timekeepers.

If they are preserved for musical purposes, they should be made to conform to a musical standard in order that they may avoid the charge of being public nuisances and become as they should be, the pride and joy of the community.

THE PRESBYTERIAN BAN ON TOBACCO.

The Presbyterian General Assembly has decided that it is not wrong for a Presbyterian minister to grant liquor licenses, but that it is contrary to the principles of the Presbyterian doctrine for Presbyterians to use tobacco.

The supreme legislative body of the Presbyterian church has legislated on the tobacco question until the cows come home on the Day of Judgment. It cannot convince the average tobacco-using Presbyterian that his religion has any material or moral connection with his tobacco.

The lay members of the American churches do a great deal of thinking on their own account, and while they are free to think as they please, it is reasonable to expect them to be reasonable. The American spirit of independence will not brook anything that savors of unwarranted and venial domination.

It is a common fault of our religious dominations that they lose sight of the great moral teachings which make good citizens in trying to impose upon their congregations and the world petty rules of personal conduct.

Shade Tree Commissioners can do much toward making a beautiful and comfortable town, and they also make life a burden for some of the citizens. Their powers are large, and their improvements many, at the expense to the individual property owner, but the results would be gratifying. The chief trouble about shade trees is the shade itself. Shade trees have upon sidewalks and paved streets. The shade is grateful and desirable, but it is not advisable to plant trees on every town thoroughfare.

He is not and never has been pledged or committed to the one-term rule. The policy generally recognized throughout the State to elect judges will in this instance operate to the advantage of the people of Fayette county; his experience will be of inestimable value in looking after and caring for the public interests.

The people know that he is competent and qualified and that he has always been prompt, correct, faithful, impartial and fearless in the discharge of his duties and has decided all matters coming before him strictly in accordance with his understanding of the law and the facts.

He has always been an earnest, consistent Democrat and has the confidence of all political parties and there is a strong conviction being freely expressed to the effect that if any Democrat in the county can overcome the large Republican majority and be elected to this important position, he can; and that is the reason why practically all of the Democratic lawyers and the workers throughout the county, who have the interest and success of the party at heart, are earnestly for him.

MARCHERS MEET AT POSTOFFICE

No Damages Granted By Viewers
Who Go Over Arthur Avenue.
Hugh Francis and Wife Thrown
From Their Buggy—Other Notes of Mill Town.

SCOTSDALE, May 29.—The Memorial day exercises will be held here on Monday, the 31st. The Sons of Veterans and friends meeting in front of the Elmer & Grant building at 8:30 and from there marching to the cemetery at 9:30. The cemetery, where the graves of the veterans will be decorated. The cemetery has been visited this week and are in beautiful condition. The postoffice will close at 11 o'clock and remain closed the balance of the day. There will be no money orders issued and service on the rural route will be suspended. The banks will close all day, and many stores will be closed part of the day at least. The warehouse and freight office of the P. R. R. will be closed, and no freight received or delivered that day, as all the distributing local freights will be nullified that day.

Thrown From Their Buggy.
Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Francis were the victims of a driving accident the other evening, in which Mr. Francis had his head so badly cut, by being thrown from the buggy, that several stitches were required to close the wound. He and Mrs. Francis were driving in West Pittsburg street over the rough stone portion of the street, and ahead of them was John Townsend's milk wagon. Both Mr. Francis and Mr. Townsend were going slowly. Mr. Francis's horse took a sudden and unexpected leap to pass and tried it but the buggy wheels caught in the rear wheels of the milk wagon and the buggy was overturned. Mr. Francis kept hold of the lines and there was no runaway. Mrs. Francis escaped with some bruises.

Adams Express Lousy Something.
The Adams Express Company will have to reach down in its pocket and buy a new express wagon unless the Pennsylvania railroad performs that act for them. In the morning Expressman James Culler is driving about in a greasy wagon, probably the center of the horse, which has to haul one of the big boxes that the express company always overloads their horses with. Mr. Culler was crossing the tracks at the marble shop when an oncoming truck struck the wagon, smashing it and throwing Mr. Culler on and severely bruising him. The horse was not injured.

Some Schedule Changes.
A new schedule goes into effect on the Pennsylvania railroad tomorrow evening, affecting two trains here. The one that went north at 7:45 in the morning will go 10 minutes earlier, and will get into Pittsburg at 9:07 instead of 9:14, while the train that went in the same direction at 9:51 will go at 9:41. It will reach Pittsburg at 11:23.

Old Meadow Goes On.
Four mills at the Old Meadow plant go on tomorrow night and the pulverizing plant about the middle of the month. Old Meadow closed down in November of 1907, and has remained closed ever since. The employees of it and the Scottsdales plant working about half time lately. This will put them all on full time. When the five other mills go on about 900 men will be employed.

Viewers Made Visit.
Capt. J. J. Wiering of Greensburg and Benjamin Stoeck of Lewin, the viewers appointed by the Westmoreland county court, to view the improvement on Arthur avenue went over the pavement there yesterday. No damages were allowed in their schedule and none were asked for.

Byrne Moves Down Street.
The Byrne Real Estate Company has moved from the Central Hotel building to the Byrne building, formerly occupied by the Union Supply Company, and will have their new offices over Marks & Goldenson's clothing store. The moving was a big job, and the removal of the safe from one place to another was accomplished by Teamster William Richey.

Elks Celebrated Anniversary.
Lodge 777, B. F. O. E., celebrated the seventh anniversary of their founding here on Thursday evening, in their lodge rooms. A number of prominent speakers were present and a luncheon was served. There is now a membership of 127 in the lodge and since it was organized here there have been three deaths, those of A. J. Simons, John H. Ritchie and W. C. Martin.

Spelling Bee at Tyrone.
The spelling bee at the Tyrone Church was well attended last night, and quite an addition made to the fund for the repairing of the church building. Supper was served as a part of the entertainment and was up to the usual high standard of that community.

Rev. Auld's Services.
The regular services of the Alverton charge of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be resumed tomorrow. The pastor, Rev. Archibald Auld will conduct divine services at Wesley Chapel at 10:30 A. M.; at Jacobs Creek at 2 P. M.; and at Alverton at 7 P. M., to which services all persons are invited.

Uniforms Got Here.
Thomas H. Rutherford, agent for The Courier this forenoon received the uniforms for the independent blue-ball team which open its season at Elmer's park this afternoon. The uniforms are beautiful, white with blue trimmings, and the letter "S" on the breast. The uniforms arrived just on time.

The Scrap Book

They Had Met Before.
Mrs. Matthews bought a French cookbook. The book told her, among other things, how to make ragouts and farces and navarins out of leftover steak, the ends of roasts, cold vegetables, and so forth. This was delightful. "Hush," which Matthews hated, would be banished, and yet, as before, nothing would be wasted in the Matthews home.

So one evening she set her hungry, tired husband down to a paper frilled navarin a la sauce. The dish looked grand from the outside, and the man's face lit up at sight of it, but as soon as he lifted the lid the joy faded from his eyes.

"Ask the blessing, please, George," his wife reminded him.

"I think, dear," George answered wearily, "we've blessed everything here before."

Our Duty.
Do you think none has known but yourself all the pain
Of hopes that retreat and regrets that remain
And all the wide distance fate fixes, no doubt
Twixt the life that's within and the life that's without?

Do you know where I can find a joint?
"A joint?" gasped the friend. "What on earth do you want to find a joint for?"
"Why, just a natural craving. I've been looking all over town for a good one."

Goodness!
"Goodness!" exclaimed the other, who belonged to the W. C. T. U. Then to be sure the Englishwoman was not joking, she asked:
"Do you mean a liquor joint?"
"Never heard of such a thing," was the reply. "I mean a joint of mutton, of course."

Why They Adjourned.
A slight earthquake visited many cities of the Gulf states some years ago. The shaking of the earth was distinctly felt all over one state, but especially in the state capital. The legislature was in session at the time, and nearly every member thereof ran out of the building when the structure began to vibrate a disposition to turn itself over. Of course there was an end to legislative proceedings for that day. When the body had reconvened it was found that some member of a grizzly humor had made an entry on the journal of the legislature in these words: "On motion of the house the legislature adjourned."

Upset His Dignity.
The beefeaters, as the guards in the Tower of London are called, wear a most grotesque costume. J. L. Toole, the famous English comedian, in company with Comyns Carr, the author, visited the Tower and in tones of confidential secrecy addressed the first disguised beefeater who stood at the gateway.

"What have you done?" he inquired in an anxious voice.
"What do you mean, sir?" said the man.

"I mean," said Toole, in a still more confidential tone, "what crime have you committed? You need not keep it from me and my friends."

"Crime?" was the indignant answer. "I have committed no crime!"

"Come, come!" said Toole, suddenly assuming the air of a cross examining counsel. "Do you dare to tell me that? You must have committed some crime, you know, or they would never have put you into a dress like that!"

No Use Trying.
An old dandy wanted to join a fashionable city church, and the minister, knowing it was hardly the thing to do and not wanting to hurt his feelings, told him to go home and pray over it.

In a few days the dandy came back. "Well, what do you think of it by this time?" asked the preacher.

"Well, sah," replied the colored man. "Ah prayed as prayed, no de good Lord he says to me, 'Rastus, Ah wouldn't bodder mah bald about dat no mo'. Ah've been tryin' to git into dat church mahself for de las' twenty yerra, and Ah ain't done no luck.'"

NEGRESS GUILTY IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

Mrs. Nellie Patterson Declares She Took Revolver to Defend Herself.

WAS ACCIDENTALLY DISCHARGED

Heard Her Husband Endeavoring to Break Into the House and Went After the Pistol—Gives an Account of Cruel Treatment Prior to the Shooting.

SOMERSET, Pa., May 29.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Nellie Patterson, a young colored woman who was on trial for two days charged with shooting her husband, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree and recommended the extreme mercy of the court. Sentence has not yet been pronounced.

Mrs. Patterson was charged with shooting her husband, William S. Patterson, at Somerset on February fourth.

In the trial it was brought out that her husband was in the habit of drinking, that he beat and abused her and that at several times he had told her to leave him. She testified that she was in the habit of carrying a revolver for her own protection, and that on the day of the shooting she took the revolver into her own hands, and a statement made after the shooting that she had shot her husband.

Mrs. Patterson was placed on the witness stand on Thursday morning and she testified that her husband had told her to leave him, and that she had taken the revolver into her own hands, and that she had shot her husband. She testified that she had shot her husband because she was afraid of him, and that she had shot him because he was trying to break into the house.

The case closed at 10 o'clock Thursday when the addresses of the attorneys to the jury and the charge of the court were completed at 4 o'clock. The jury deliberated on its verdict for two hours.

The case is a sad one. It is a case of a woman who was driven to desperation by the cruelty of her husband. She was a young woman, and she was a mother. She was a woman who was driven to desperation by the cruelty of her husband.

Since the case was first reported the following cases have been reported: A man named Adams was charged with the murder of a woman named Adams. The case is a sad one. It is a case of a woman who was driven to desperation by the cruelty of her husband.

PRESIDENT TAFT IN PITTSBURGH.

Dedicates Fountain at Arsenal Park This Morning.

CITY IN HOLIDAY RAIMENT

Numerous Functions, Mostly of an Exclusive Character, Will Occupy the Chief Executive During His Two Days' Stay.

Pittsburgh, May 29.—President William H. Taft is the guest of Pittsburgh today. That the city appreciates the honor is shown by bunting displayed everywhere and the holiday appearance of the town.

The president and his party arrived at East Liberty station at 8:40 this morning. With the president were Captain Archibald W. Butt, his military aid, and Assistant Secretary Mischler. Mrs. Taft was prevented from making the trip by the recent nervous breakdown from which she is said to be recuperating.

The president will be away from Washington until late Monday night. From Pittsburgh he will go to Gettysburg to deliver the memorial address.

BOYERSTOWN, Pa., May 29.—It is little known that this town was one of the oldest iron mines in the Keystone State. Way back in 1720, when land was obtained from the Penns, the first blast furnace was erected, known as the "Cokebush." Its location was on the site of the town, and was taken from the surface, like that from the famous Crownwall banks. The pioneer settlers said they "piled" the ore, next to the roots of the grass and carried it in wicker baskets to wagons, upon which it was hauled to the Cokebush furnace.

The method of mining at this time, and the next plan employed was the windless, with two men, one at each end, turning the ore in little wooden buckets to the surface. In this way mining was kept up until 1817, when the ore was hauled to the surface by horse power. The method used was known as a "win or yoke." The horse would walk in a circle and one rope would wind around a cylinder, while the other would unwind in this way one bucket would rise to the surface while the other sank to the bottom of the shaft. The horse was required to walk in one direction to raise one bucket, then reverse to raise the other. This method, however, was quite expensive.

The operations from that period to the close of the last century became very extensive. The last mining machinery was finally installed, and the Boyerstown mine became the most extensive in the State.

They practically extended underground the entire town of several thousand population. There was one mine below another, and on several occasions it happened that owners, some down their own shafts only to find the shaft of a competitor, and worked down to his own property during the night, before knowing they had encroached upon a neighbor.

During this period when shafts were sunk side by side, the men were digging toward each other, but, because the mine was so deep, they were not aware of it.

Shifting was finally sunk to depths of 500 to 1,000 feet, and water flooded them and became the great barrier to all the workings of the various mines. While the mines were there for many years, the water was finally removed from the large shafts, and they were again operated up to within a recent shaft, but at the present time every shaft is flooded, but there is no sufficient, it operated rights, in amount to 100,000 tons a month, and keep 300 miners busy for the next 50 years at least; so there is some hope for resumption. The ore from this mine is between 37 and 60 per cent. pure iron.

For the first time this season the Cokers yesterday put up a really miserable exhibition of baseball and it cost the one game the fans wanted to win.

Fairmont won the game, 1 to 0, and did it on one solitary hit. Elmer Cannon never pitched better ball and after the opening innings he was given splendid support. The Cokers played well on the defense but on the bases—forget it.

It is a sad and tale, this story of yesterday's contest. It is the story of a game that went astray. There were chances of both teams and both. It might have been a very appreciable score. If Tiffany had played as well as he did on the plate on Cannon's short hit, if Summers had played as well as he did on the field, if the Cokers had started in the first inning, the Cokers 6 to 10, after getting the first two Fairmont men down. Then "Digger" Haught led a line to Tiffany. He not only caught it but "Digger" Haught was fair catching over to the bat. Tiffany threw before he was there and the ball went wild. Haught kept on to second. Durham then stepped to left and the ball rolled through Morgan. Haught scurried. Haught would have scored on the hit in spite of Morgan's interference, but the bounce hit Durham's head. Parker hit a long fly which Morgan, to reduce himself, caught.

In the second inning, after the Cokers failed to do anything in the first, the Fairmont bunched. Morgan's easy surrender for the first two were easy outs. In the third inning there was a pass and a strike second, and he was the last batter to reach the bases for the balance of the game.

The Cokers were evidence of getting the run back when Tiffany opened the third with a two base hit to deep center. He went to third on Fairmont's sacrifice but seemed to score on Cannon's hit in short. Single threw him out at the plate and a chance to score was killed. Morgan drew a pass and two men occupied the sacks when Summers flew to Haught.

Philips looked good in the fifth when Fairly singled but he was forced at second on Cannon's ground ball to O'Malley. Morgan struck out. O'Malley thought he touched but Sumners said not and both men were safe. With a man on third and one on first, Cannon hit a high foul. O'Malley gathered in. Morgan then sent a short fly to left that looked like a sure safe hit but Keller made a great running catch of the ball.

The eighth inning was the heart-breaker. Summers led off by waiting for four strikes. Morgan then singled to center. Summers, from second, dashed down to third and stopped long enough to see the ball returned to the infield. Just as it was reaching Haught, Summers made a false start towards home. Haught, wide awake, threw to O'Malley and Summers was caught before he could get back to the bag. Chip Francis drove a hard one which Parker made a great stop of and Chip was thrown out at first.

In the ninth, although hope of victory had died, Tiffany opened with a hard drive to left which seemed tagged for extra sacks. Durham ran over, stuck up his glove and stabbed the hit. Fairly put another in the same place and Haught, batting for Cannon, patted the first ball only to send it up in the air to Haught. The score:

CONNELLSVILLE	AB	R	H	P	A	E
Morgan, 1b	3	0	1	4	0	1
Summers, 2b	3	0	0	2	4	0
C. Francis, ss	4	0	1	0	0	0
Myers, 3b	4	0	0	1	1	0
Callahan, rf	3	0	1	1	0	0
C. Francis, lf	4	0	0	2	0	0
Tiffany, 1b	3	0	1	1	0	1
Frailley, c	3	0	2	4	1	0
Cannon, p	3	0	0	0	3	0
Total	30	0	7	11	3	1

On The Way Down:

Pitch a snappy game and lose it. Hard luck, Cannon. You did your best, anyhow.

Summers is unfortunate. It was his slump that lost the other game. Fairmont played here.

What was Haught doing on the reaching line when Summers made his foolish dive?

There was no other alternative than to give Tiffany an error for the play at first in the opening inning. He made a great stop of Haught's drive. Cannon, thinking Tiffany would field the ball clean and make the put out, delayed covering first.

That misdeed of Morgan's was a funny one. The ball apparently cleared its way clear through him, as there was no opening in sight for it, from the grandstand at least.

Aside from bunched work on the bases the game was a beauty. There were some great belling points by the Fairmont boys, while Cannon played excellent support. After the second inning, Parker's stop of Chip Francis' drive, saved the game for the Fairmont.

Seven men left on bases. All seven should have scored, too. Why didn't it rain before the game started?

Myers failed to do any thing. Wagoner slumped with the willow. There wasn't much enthusiasm. It was a dreary day for baseball and the crowd didn't seem to take its usual interest in things. It rained for a time, too, and was dark and gloomy most of the time. That kept the attendance down somewhat but there was a good crowd in spite of the handicap.

Cheer up, Summers. You'll learn. It was hard luck, but someone has to be the goat and it's up to you. This time.

The fans will be calling Summers Merkle for this. Such is fate. Still, Merkle stood it and a playing card and even if he did lose a pennant.

Well, it isn't a long distance from the first division. The team will find there before the swallows home-ward fly.

It is worthy of mention that Fairly never failed to advance a runner. Fairly obeyed orders and asked no questions. That is one reason why he is making good. Follow the youngster who plays according to instructions and the one who thinks his own judgment best and see who succeeds in the long run.

Fairly is a consistent fighter but he never hesitates when ordered to sacrifice himself. As a consequence his superiors know they can rely on him every time.

Myers ought to forget the existence of a batting average. When ordered to sacrifice yesterday instead of going through with the deal he tried to lay down a bunt he could beat to first. As a result he struck out, letting the third strike be called on him. Had he followed instructions Summers would have reached third and scored on Callahan's single. If Myers really tried to sacrifice, he didn't act like it at the plate.

Funny how plans go wrong. This game would have been won in the fifth inning if things had gone right. With Fairly on first and one out, Summers tried an unusual play and ordered Cannon to sacrifice. Elmer's hit was just a little too hard and Fairly was forced at second. Had he reached the bag safely, Morgan's single would have brought him home. Wonder how many fans saw through that play?

Just a week before yesterday's game the Cokers had 15 men left on the bases at Clarksburg. Last Monday 15 were left on the sacks in 1909.

Uniontown contest, while 12 were named in the game at Uniontown. Pinch hits are much in demand.

Every fan in town had a different idea of how that game was lost. What's the difference, we can get it back today.

Both Haught and Gilligan are scheduled to play today. Summers hasn't decided what to do in the outfield yet. Morgan, Callahan or Myers will have to warm the bench and Summers hasn't decided which one will take a rest.

A tie game will go to Uniontown Monday afternoon with the main Monday contest Monday will go beyond the regulation distance.

FACES 20-YEAR SENTENCE.

Chauffeur Convicted of First Degree Manslaughter For Killing Boy.
New York, May 29.—William B. Durrough, the chauffeur who ran down and killed Edward T. Tamm, the eleven-year-old son of a prominent Kentucky lawyer, was found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree. The maximum penalty is twenty years.

Durrough is twenty-one years old. His killing of the "timber boy" attracted attention because, after his machine had knocked down the boy and crushed him, he put on extra speed and fled, leaving his victim to die in the street.

Durrough's conviction is the first under the amended section of the law for murder, which reads in part:

"The killing of a human being by an act manifestly dangerous to others and evincing a depraved mind regardless of human life, although without a premeditated design, is punishable by a verdict of murder in the first degree."

Monday, May 31st, is Memorial Day—A day legalized by our Government as a National Holiday. A day that all Americans observe in honor of the men who gave their lives in defense of a flag that now lends its protection to the persecuted of every land. Honoring the memory of these men who so bravely fought and died in the upholding of our government.

This Establishment Will Remain Closed All Day, Monday, May 31st.

We make this statement emphatic because of inquiries as to whether we would open part of the day. Memorial Day, as the American understands it, is a day (not a half a day) set aside by our government for a nation to honor its heroes dead. Therefore this store, in true accord with the intention of the day, will remain closed as is usual throughout the entire day.

LAW TO PROTECT TREES ON STREETS

"Tree Butchers" Can Be Prevented From Defacing Vegetation by a Act Passed Two Years Ago.

An Act of Assembly approved by the Governor on May 21, 1907, provides for the planting and care of shade trees on the highways of townships of the first class, boroughs and cities of the Commonwealth.

It authorizes the appointment by the burgesses in boroughs of three freeholders to be known as shade tree commissioners who are to serve without compensation. They are to have exclusive and absolute custody and control of the trees on the public streets.

They have power to plant, set out, remove, maintain, protect, and care for, shade trees, on any of the public highways. The provisions of this act must be accepted by a resolution of the borough council.

The commissioners are to be appointed for terms of three, four and five years respectively, and on the expiration of any term the new appointment shall be for five years and any vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term only.

Section 17 provides that the cost of planting, transplanting or removing any trees in any highway and of suitable guards, curbing or grading for the protection thereof when necessary and of the proper replacing of any pavement or sidewalk necessary or desirable in the doing of such work shall be borne by the owner of the real estate in front of which such trees are planted.

The costs shall be certified by the commissioners and become a lien upon said real estate. The commissioners are authorized to publish and enforce regulations for the care and to prevent injury to the trees on the streets and to assess suitable fines and penalties for violation of this act.

All fines and penalties shall be paid to the borough treasurer and placed to the credit of said commission to be used for the purposes of this act. The cost and expense of caring for trees, shall be paid for by a tax not to exceed one-tenth of one mill per annum on the assessed valuation of the property.

A number of towns in Pennsylvania have already taken advantage of this act. It was drawn by Dr. Horace McFarland of Harrisburg, President of the American Civic Association.

Kills Daughter and Himself in Paris Restaurant.

Paris, May 29.—David Henderson, believed to be of New York, age fifty-one, shot his daughter dead in a cafe here and committed suicide. The dead woman's name was Martha. She was twenty-two years old.

With Mr. Henderson in the restaurant were his wife and three daughters and a governess. All had supper together and the party was most cheerful. Then, without warning, Mr. Henderson drew four shots, one of which struck his daughter Martha in the back of the neck, fracturing her spine and killing her instantly. Before the terrified women could interpose Henderson turned the weapon upon himself and blew out his brains, falling dead beside his daughter's body.

Those who witnessed the tragedy were Henderson's daughters Olga, age thirteen, and Gladys, age ten; his wife, who is a Russian woman, and Olga, a governess. The last named said that Mr. Henderson had been a sufferer from neurasthenia and on that account a source of great anxiety to his wife, who took him about with her to stores and restaurants in an endeavor to combat the disease.

The restaurant which was the scene of the tragedy is known as the "Tranquil Father" and is a well-known supper place here.

BATTING NELSON AND FIGHTING DICK HYLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Battling Nelson, the champion lightweight pugilist, and "Fighting Dick" Hyland are both in tip-top condition for their 45-round fight scheduled for the Mission street arena today. Both men are confident of victory, and each will carry a goodly sum of backing. The battling duo is the favorite at 10 to 7, but Hyland's admirers are legion, and there are no end of fight fans who expect Nelson to meet his Waterloo at the hands of the Californian. Hyland is as strong as a young ox and has a punch in either hand that many a welter would be proud to deliver. It will be the first meeting of these two men, whose rivalry has been the talk of ring circles for years, and if the end of the fight does not see a new light weight champion those who are fortunate enough to attend will have had their money's worth anyway.
